answer? Then
we should likely add $140 to the fund - & gratify Caroline also -

Let me hear
your views when convenient - &
address me at Boston - tho'

I have moved to Swampscott - where I am still suffering

the offer if the contributors consented.
Accordingly we forwarded to each the notification I should assume that each one assented
unless we received
a reply to the contrary.
May one who could not consent to the change could, if he wished receive his money back -

— would not this

to the fund - Quincy's doubts would be relieved by such a change & Cornell can be supplied with a file otherwise. I have one to bestow
sometime

could we not therefore print a
few lines stating some thing like this
that the private Library of an old Abolitionist had offered $140 - & the Bee
were desirous of accepting have them - And

since receiving her note I have notified all persons I have applied to - (Bartol - Marston
G. Richardson, Nath,
'Richard, Burrage
- whom Trotter handed over to me as he could not find them in -) -

that the Lib^y might be sold to a private library instead of being given to Cornell -

Now I have no
doubt all the contribu tors would assent to such a change in order to secure such a large addition

Some $20 or $30 more

I have paid (Mr. Mill, and Dutcher & Co)
$173.25 -

You see from the note I inclose (that your Fanny sent
me) that Caroline Weston offers $140
for the Liberator

I wrote her that when you returned
it could be decided whether she could

Dear Garrison

Trusting you
had a fine time at the Lakes & have returned well

I will report on Nelli's Affairs -

Since I sent
your son a statement of receipts I have
